

Soviet Silent as U.S. Brags of Strength

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is doing an astonishing job—without any complaint from Russia—of telling the world the United States is far more powerful than the Soviets.

Top men in the administration, in testimony before Senate committees considering the limited nuclear test ban treaty, have proclaimed one after another American nuclear superiority.

And not a word from Premier Khrushchev.

From Geneva The Associated Press reported that diplomatic sources said Russia last week promised this country it would not try to exploit in any way Senate debate over approval of the treaty.

This kind of Russian cooperation, to get American approval of a treaty which Russia wants as much as the Kennedy administration, is probably unprecedented, at least in recent history.

Russian agreement to the treaty is even more unusual—if it, too, thinks the United States has such superiority—since the treaty, by banning all tests except underground, makes Russian efforts to catch up more difficult.

Together the Senate hearings and debate will take perhaps a month or more. That's a long time for Khrushchev to keep quiet while the United States goes unchallenged in telling the world Russia is second-best.

This silence can hardly last forever and probably won't any longer than it takes the Senate to give its approval. Russia might make that approval much more doubtful if it began shouting counterclaims now.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, for instance, said this country has held communism in check 18 years by the "deterrent force" of our massive military strength.

And he added: "We shall maintain that overwhelming strength until we are certain that freedom can be assured by other means."

And even though Rusk played badminton with Khrushchev last week, he didn't hesitate to express less than complete confidence Khrushchev wouldn't cheat on the treaty. He said he couldn't guarantee it wouldn't happen.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara was even more emphatic. He said flatly American nuclear forces "are manifestly superior." He assured his listeners this superiority would be prolonged rather than diminished by the treaty.

Even in testing underground, the only kind the treaty permits and the kind President Kennedy said this country will definitely continue, McNamara said this country "has had substantially more experience."

Therefore, he said, the agreement would "at least retard Soviet progress and prolong the duration of our technological superiority." He went even further. He expressed the opinion that the increase in American superiority over the last four years probably made the Soviet Union decide to agree to the test ban.

Next came Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to say these top military men consider the United States "clearly ahead" of the Soviets "in the ability to wage strategic war" and that it is probably ahead "in the ability to wage tactical war."

Under the combined testimony of these three men any opposition left in the Senate seemed badly melted.

The three didn't say they had compared notes before testifying. But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., thought it odd that all three expressed fear that "euphoria" in the West over the treaty might reduce its vigilance.

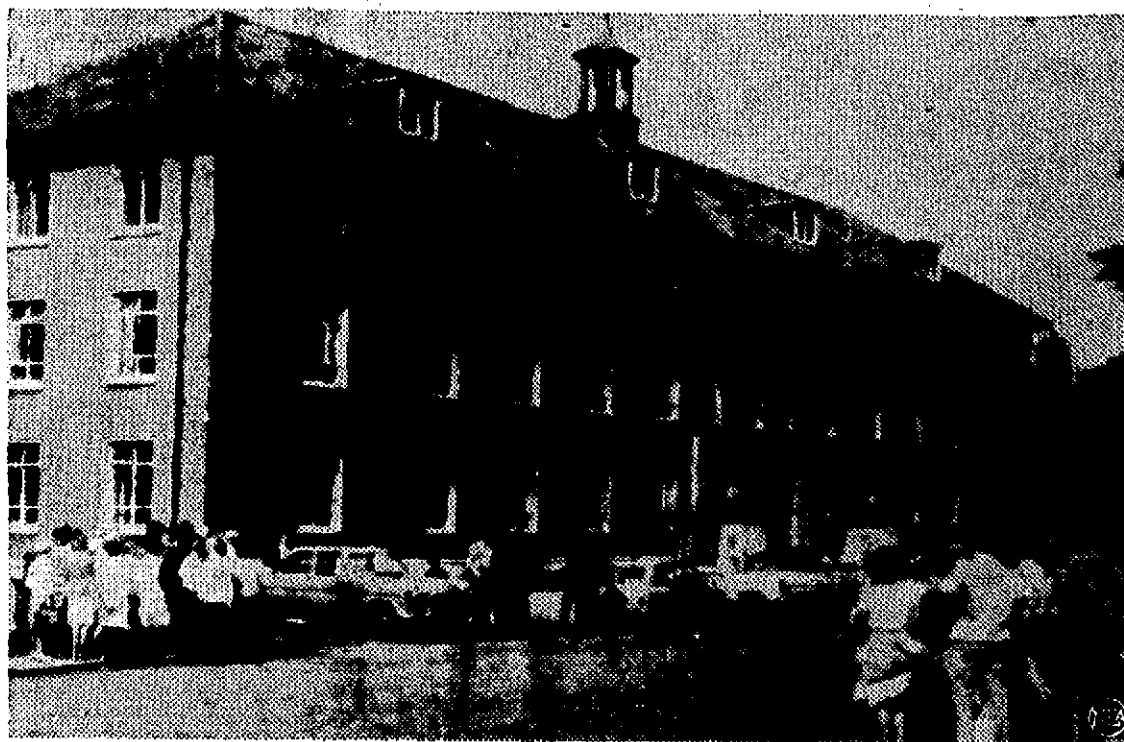

The dictionary defines euphoria as a "feeling of well-being or elation, especially one that is groundless." Yet, nothing could do more to give the West a feeling of elation than the testimony of Rusk, McNamara and Taylor about American superiority.

Russell said he was "consumed with curiosity" about how the word got into the testimony of all three men but he said "it's firmly established now" and "we'll have euphoria all around us."

8 Nazi Group Members Are Indicted

NEW YORK (AP)—Eight members of a neo-Nazi organization, accused of plotting riots at the scenes of civil rights picketing, have been indicted on charges of advocating criminal anarchy.

The indictments, returned Thursday by a Bronx County grand jury, also charged attempting to riot and violating the anti-weapons law.

Seven of the defendants pleaded innocent in State Supreme Court and remained free on bonds ranging from $2,500 to $7,500. No trial date was set.

The eighth, who testified before the jury after signing a waiver of immunity from possible prosecution, will be arraigned later. His identity was not disclosed.

Rail Unions Listen to Secy. Wirtz

WASHINGTON (AP)—The rail unions have accepted suggestions advanced by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz for bargaining procedures in the jobs dispute.

Never spelled out in detail, the suggestions were made Aug. 2 to define the limits within which bargaining could proceed. They were not intended as settlement proposals.

Negotiations have sputtered to a stalemate and any optimism Thursday's union announcement may have raised soon dwindled when J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, issued a statement saying the unions "insist give-and-take of collective bargaining means they do all the taking and the railroads do all the giving."

Unless a settlement is reached or Congress approves President Kennedy's plan to turn the dispute over to the Interstate Commerce Commission, a nationwide rail strike Aug. 29 appears inevitable.

Shoe Factory at Conway Ends Strike

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Operations at the International Shoe Co. plant were resumed Thursday when seven women stitch operators returned to work after striking over what plant superintendent Ben Knott termed minor grievances.

Knott said the women walked out in disagreement over such things as "moving a rack here and a fan there."

The other 450 employees of the plant did not cross the picket line and the plant was idle Tuesday and Wednesday.

The women's grievances will be negotiated at the St. Louis office of the company, Knott said.

25 True Bills From Spa Jury

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Twenty-five true bills—four of them secret—were returned by the U.S. Grand Jury for the Western District of Arkansas Thursday.

Twenty-one involved liquor law violations. Fort Smith, El Dorado and Texarkana residents were named in the secret indictments. Names of those indicted are not released until the persons have been arrested.

The indictments came at the close of a two-day session of the Grand Jury at Hot Springs.

Russia Raps Both China and U.S.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union accused both the United States and Red China today of working against peace.

The official party organ Pravda suggested that the Chinese were trying to promote a war between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The military newspaper Krasnaya Vozdza accused ruling circles of the United States of taking a two-faced attitude toward the nuclear test ban treaty.

Low 50's as Cold Wave Hits State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Overnight low temperatures skidded into the 50s again this morning, but the high pressure area that caused the past few days of cool, dry weather was moving farther to the east and a warming trend was predicted for Saturday.

Little Rock, which has the official reading for the state, had a record low for the second day in a row. The reading this morning was 55, six degrees below the old record set in 1929.

Batesville had the lowest reading in the state, however, with a frosty 49. It was 50 at Gilbert.

The Weather Bureau said the high pressure system was moving into the Ohio Valley and that some warming would be felt today and Saturday as winds returned to a southerly direction.

A cold front moving southward from the plains states held promise of some widely scattered thundershowers over the weekend, but was expected to dampen only about 30 per cent of western Arkansas and 15 per cent of the eastern portions of the state.

High temperatures Thursday were generally in the low to mid 80s.

Other overnight low readings included: 53 at Fayetteville, Brinkley, Hope, Warren and Mountain Home, 54 at Keiser and El Dorado and 55 at Walnut Ridge, Camden, Marianna, Newport, Portland, Stuttgart, Beaver, Greers Ferry and Mena.

Highs of 84-92 were predicted for this afternoon, well below the record 107 for this date set in 1943. Lows tonight were expected to be mostly in the 60s and highs of 90-96 were forecast for Saturday.

No rain was reported during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m.

Temperatures during the next five days were expected to average two to four degrees below the normal highs of 92 and the normal lows of 70.

Showers during the five-day period were expected to produce one-half inch to two inches of rainfall.

Hong Kong Fires on Red Chinese

HONG KONG (AP)—An exchange of fire took place 10 days ago between a Hong Kong police launch and what was believed to be an armed Chinese Communist motor junk near Mirs Bay, east of Hong Kong.

A belated Hong Kong government statement today said three police constables were wounded by gunshots fired from the unidentified vessel. The shooting occurred in British territorial waters, the statement said.

Martial Law for 2 Cities in Viet Nam

By PETER ARNETT
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—President Ngo Dinh Diem's government clamped martial law on two major Vietnamese cities today in the wake of another Buddhist suicide by fire—the third this week.

Martial law was imposed on the central Viet Nam capital of Hue, where the latest burning occurred early today, and on the coastal city of Nhatrang, where Vietnamese troops quelled a big demonstration with tear gas.

Reliable sources said U.S. military personnel had been restricted to their barracks from dusk to dawn in both cities, which are centers of U.S. military advisory groups.

All Vietnamese in Hue except civil servants and troops were ordered to stay indoors.

Tension reached a new pitch when a 71-year-old Buddhist monk, Thich Tieu Dieu, burned himself to death at 4 a.m. in Hue's biggest pagoda. It was the fifth such ritual suicide in two months in the Buddhist campaign against the government of Diem, a Roman Catholic.

Several hundred government troops ringed the Tu Dam pagoda but did not try to enter the building, where Buddhists guarded the monk's body.

The burning apparently was organized by the Buddhist hierarchy. Two young Buddhists who burned themselves to death this week acted independently.

The old monk announced over a loudspeaker from his pagoda Thursday night that he would commit suicide in support of Buddhist demands for civil and religious rights they claim are denied them by Diem.

Hot Springs Pair Accused in Drug Raid

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A raid on a Hot Springs motel room netted a large quantity of marijuana Wednesday night and two men were charged with possession of the drug.

Police Chief Joe Crain said William T. Smith Jr., 26, of Hot Springs and Jimmy Brown, 19, of Little Rock, were held on $5,000 bonds.

Brown was arrested as he came out of Smith's room, Crain said, and Smith was picked up later in a downtown bar.

The two are to be arraigned next Wednesday in Hot Springs Municipal Court unless Pros. Atty. David Whittington files charges direct in Garland Circuit Court.

Crain said police seized a small tobacco can filled with marijuana and a sack containing marijuana seed. Officers also took a marijuana cigarette from Smith, Crain said, and a number of butts were found in his room.

Smith faces similar charges in Little Rock, Crain said.

Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs issued a warrant for search of the room.

Pressure for Peace Is on "Mister K"

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev is believed to be under domestic as well as foreign pressures to reach new agreements with the United States and its allies for easing tensions and reducing the dangers of war.

This belief evidently underlies the cautious optimism indicated by Secretary of State Dean Rusk at his news conference Friday that further East-West accords, following up the nuclear test ban success, may be possible.

Rusk particularly cited the possibility of working out a system for stationing observers in key transportation centers of the great powers to guard against the danger of surprise attack.

At the same time he warned that the hopeful situation could be turned upside down "by tomorrow morning," and added: "We just have to keep working at it to see what can happen."

Rusk was in the Soviet Union a week ago and held policy talks with Khrushchev and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

He is scheduled to meet Gromyko in New York next month for further discussions on the next round of U.S.-Soviet negotiations to reduce tensions. Meanwhile, he is directing consultations with the United States' North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies on a possible nonaggression pact with Soviet bloc countries and on related issues.

Rusk said he believes the Soviet Union "has some real interest in this test ban treaty and in exploring these matters (issues of possible future agreement) further."

"I think the argument between Moscow and Peking about the role of thermonuclear war in the modern world is a serious argument," Rusk declared.

"I believe that the Soviet Union does have, as all of us have, some great unfinished tasks for its own people in which it would like to make substantially large investments."

Rusk's reference to the conflict between the Soviet Union and Red China was in line with a view widely held by top government officials that Khrushchev is seriously worried about the growing hostility in the Red Chinese leaders toward the Kremlin and feels that he should improve his relations with the West and demonstrate that his policy of peaceful coexistence can produce results.

The dispute over thermonuclear war is a fundamental issue of the conflict. Khrushchev argues that the Communists cannot afford to use major war as an instrument for spreading revolution.

The Chinese contend that great risks are necessary and that war is probably inevitable in the process.

Rusk did not spell out what economic pressures he sees operating on Khrushchev, but his general comment was in line with what well-informed officials say privately. Their view is that Khrushchev must find some way of reducing military costs and the military drain on Soviet industrial resources if he is to expand the civilian economy and increase activities in the light industry and consumer goods fields.

This evidently was what Rusk had in mind in referring to "great unfinished tasks."

Presumably Khrushchev hopes that agreements with the West would lessen the danger of war and make it possible to make the reductions in military costs which would allow him to finance activities in other fields.

Friday night, W. Averell Harriman, chief U.S. negotiator of the limited nuclear test ban treaty, said that after last October's Cuban missile crisis showdown "it became very evident that Mr. Khrushchev did not want to have anything to do with atomic war."

Khrushchev is finding it very expensive to keep up the arms race, Harriman said in a program taped for Florida radio-television stations.

The Soviet Union is trying to get all nations to sign the treaty to "keep the spotlight on Red China for failing to sign," Harriman continued. "They are trying to make the world believe that Red China is more dangerous than they are."

School Guidance Group Schedules Workshop Meet in Jonesboro Next Week

By MARY ANITA LASETAR

Did you know that the president of the Arkansas Personnel and Guidance Association is Hope High School Guidance Counselor Earl Downs? The group will have a workshop in Jonesboro next week, August 21-23. One of the consultants will be Dr. Dolph Camp, a former Hope teacher now with the U.S. Department of Education.

Began in the 1940's with Horace Hubbard as counselor, the program at Hope High had a lapse of several years with no counselor here. But since 1957 Earl Downs has spearheaded the drive for more emphasis and greater use of the Guidance Counseling service in our local schools.

Today, an active file on from 525 to 550 students is kept up to date. It is not allowed out of the high school office, but it is available for parents, students, and prospective employers to see there.

Acceptance of the program and use of it by employers has grown steadily, but in the last three years it has had an overwhelming reception by the general public.

"It is an outstanding program at a minimum of expense," Downs explained. "For $600 a student receives nine years of testing with the results, changes of interests, and progress being carefully charted."

This expense is borne by the local school system and it is felt that the plan is certainly worth the testing in the 3rd and 4th grades, and the remaining tests are graded and charted by Downs and his staff of Junior Counselors. Only the 1st, 2nd, and 10th grades are not tested.

The tests are so thorough and the charting results so clear and exact that one glance by a person well-trained in the work can show a student's aptitude for further study and occupation. Speaking of education, Guidance Counselor Downs received his training in his chosen field at the University of Arkansas.

For 12 months out of the year parents of local students are free to make appointments with the local counselor to discuss the findings of the tests. The peak is reached in July when Downs is apt to counsel with parents from 7 a.m. until 4:30, though his hours aren't that long every day. In August he begins to prepare for the falling testing program.

Not only job opportunities but much valuable information can be had regarding higher scholastic pursuits. These range from up-to-date information on all church related vocations and preparation for them to the training and career opportunities in the F.B.I. Scholarships which are available, a guide to college majors, and information about the military are also at the Counselor's disposal.

"To help every student in Arkansas achieve his best potential is the goal of the Guidance Counseling Program," said Earl Downs. He further explained, "The heart of the program is work with the individual student."

The key to the success of the local program is that word, heart.

Airport Aid for 11 Cities in Arkansas

WASHINGTON (AP)—Approval of $429,830 in grants to 11 Arkansas cities for airport improvements was announced Thursday by the Federal Aviation Agency.

Grants, for the year which started last July 1, include:

Almyra $15,250 to reconstruct north-south runway, install beacon and windcone; Arkadelphia $7,200 for land and clearing; Batesville $39,425, extend and reconstruct runway; Berryville $54,000 construct 3,600 foot runway, lights, etc.; Blytheville $60,000 extend runway, widen and resurface; El Dorado $91,000 reconstruct north-south runway, enlarge apron; Franklin $31,075, land, clearance, site preparation and 3,500 foot runway.

Mena $28,000, construct 3,800 foot runway; Morrilton $34,565 land, clearing, landing area, 2,400 foot runway; Texarkana 16,005, construct apron; Wynne $56,250, 2,900 foot runway, lights, beacon, land, clear zone.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—One unidentified plane bombed and strafed a Cuban sugar mill Thursday and another flew over a refinery at Havana this morning, the Cuban radio reported.

Antiaircraft batteries went into action today when a plane flew over the Nio Lopez refinery in Havana Bay, formerly the U.S. Esso refinery. The plant was nationalized by the Castro regime in 1960.

The broadcast said heavy anti-aircraft fire forced the plane to change its course away from Cuba. Its nationality was not reported.

Another broadcast, quoting an armed forces ministry communiqué, said a small private plane attacked the Bolivia sugar mill in Camaguey Province at 4:05 a.m. Thursday, strafing it and dropping two 50-pound bombs from an altitude between 450 and 600 feet.

Only one of the bombs exploded, the report said, and it did no damage. The plane flew northward after completing its mission.

The sugar mill is located at Moron, in an area where some guerrilla activity has been reported.

Man Will Guide Future Space Flight

By HOWARD BENEDICT

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP)—Man, not his machine, will be the controlling factor on future flights by U.S. astronauts, the flight director on all six Project Mercury manned missions said today.

Chris Kraft, flight operations director for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Manned Spacecraft Center, told a satellite conference the United States is moving confidently ahead with the Gemini and Apollo manned programs because Mercury proved that man can perform effectively in space.

"When we started the manned space flight program five years ago," Kraft said, "there was a great deal of doubt about man's usefulness in space. We now have come to the point which is exactly 180 degrees around the circle from that opinion. We now depend on man to back up the automatic systems rather than using the automatic systems alone."

He said in the future there will be a blending of pilot and automatic systems.

"By experience we have arrived at what we think is a proper mixture," Kraft said. "Man is the deciding element."

He cited the action of astronauts John H. Glenn Jr., Malcolm Scott Carpenter, Walter M. Schirra Jr., and Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr. in overcoming problems that cropped up during their flights. Three of them had to exercise manual control during the critical re-entry maneuver.

Mercury ended with Cooper's 22-orbit trip last May. Next up is Project Gemini, which will send two men into orbit in the same capsule. The first flight is scheduled in about 14 months.

Raley Shoppe's Buyers to Dallas

Mrs. John B. Lowe and Mrs. Paul A. Raley, buyer for Raley's Style Shoppe, will attend the annual Holiday Fashion Market to be held August 18-23 in Dallas.

During Market buyers will select holiday fashions from over 7000 lines on display, thus assuring local customers of up-to-date the minute selections of fashion-right apparel.

Sponsored by the National Fashion Exhibitors of America, the American Fashion Association, and Texas Fashion Creators, the Dallas markets play a major role in the national fashion picture. Traditionally, four markets are held annually, with August market featuring clothing and accessories for party wear during the holiday season, as well as lingerie for Christmas giving. Men's merchandise selected will appear in retail stores in late fall or early winter.

Arbitration Accepted by Rail Unions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rail negotiations inched forward today, spurred by conditional union acceptance of a Labor Department proposal for arbitration of the two key issues in the prolonged work rules dispute.

The unions' provisional acceptance on Friday of Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz' proposal—to which the carriers agreed without reservation—signaled a possible major breakthrough in the deadlock that threatens to produce a nationwide rail strike Aug. 29.

But Wirtz declared, "We're by no means home," and J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, viewed the unions' conditions as amounting to rejection of the secretary's plan.

Wolfe said, however, that attorneys for the carriers would meet today with lawyers for the five operating unions to examine legal problems posed by Wirtz' proposal.

Advanced on Thursday night, Wirtz' plan calls for submitting the questions of firemen's jobs and makeup of train crews to an arbitration board of management, union and public representatives. The board would make a binding decision on these key issues. Other issues would be left to settlement by the two sides.

In giving qualified approval, the unions said there first must be agreement on procedures to settle the "other than manning issues." Wirtz said Labor Department officials would meet with rail and union representatives on this matter over the weekend.

"At this moment, it is impossible to know whether a settlement can be reached privately," the secretary said Friday night. "The situation is very critical."

After learning of the unions' statement, Wolfe said, "Their response was so surrounded with reservations as to cast doubt on their sincerity." He told newsmen the unions' position "may present an insurmountable obstacle" to final settlement.

Unless the dispute is settled or legislation to deal with it is passed, the railroads will put the job-eliminating rules into effect Aug. 29, Wolfe said. The unions have said they will call an immediate strike once the rules changes are posted.

At the core of the dispute, are the jobs of about 32,000 firemen on yard engines and freight trains. The railroads say they are no longer needed. The unions contend they are essential for efficient and safe operations.

The number of men—conductors and brakemen—to be assigned to train crews is the other chief item in disagreement.

President Kennedy proposed turning the dilemma over to the Interstate Commerce Commission, which would decide work-rules issues for a two-year interim while the parties continued negotiations for a permanent settlement. Except for holding hearings, Congress has been slow to act.

Moderate Leftist Is Congo Chief

BRAZZAVILLE, Congo Republic (AP)—The Congo Republic's army today announced the appointment of Alphonse Massamba-Debat, described by friends as a moderate leftist, to head a provisional government for the Congo Republic.

Massamba-Debat, 42, takes over from Fulbert Youlou, the country's only president since it gained independence from France three years ago.

Massamba-Debat was named "chief of government," or premier, not provisional president. Youlou resigned Thursday and turned the government over to the army after rioting and shouting charges of corruption and high living against him and his ministers.

Davenport Is Mainstay of the Giants

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Wobbly-legged Jim Davenport, a versatile infielder whose underpinnings have been in the spotlight as much as any chorus girl's, is kicking up a fuss in San Francisco's bid to repeat as National League champion.

In and out of the line up because of his weak legs, Davenport played a key role in a 6-3 victory over Cincinnati Thursday night that kept the second-place Giants right on the heels of the front-running Los Angeles Dodgers.

Davenport, who stroked three hits for five straight hits in two games, legged out a key bunt single in the fifth inning to keep a rally going. Before it was over, Willie Mays had smashed a decisive two-run single and the Giants had four runs and the ball game.

The triumph left the Giants three games behind the Dodgers, who again got a superlative relief effort by Ron Perranoski, in a 7-5 decision at Milwaukee that snapped a three-game losing skid. Houston dropped third-place St. Louis five games behind with a 4-2 victory built on John Bateman's three-run homer, Philadelphia took fifth place from Chicago by edging the Cubs 4-3 and Pittsburgh walloped the New York Mets 8-2.

The American League-leading New York Yankees thumped Boston 10-2, Minnesota crushed Baltimore 13-3, Detroit whipped Kansas City 11-1 and Washington nipped the Los Angeles Angels 5-4. Cleveland and the Chicago White Sox were idle.

Davenport raced out a triple in the first, beat out an infield hit in the third, then laid down his perfect bunt in the fifth to load the bases after Harvey Kuenn's single had accounted for the Giants' first run. Reds starter Joe Nuxhall, apparently upset, hit Willie McCovey with a pitch to force in a run before Mays wrapped it up.

Nuxhall had gone into the inning with a 1-0 lead provided by Vada Pinson's homer off Jack Sanford.

The Braves knocked out Sandy Koufax with a four-run first inning — three on Gene Oliver's homer — after the Dodgers had used Frank Howard's two-run homer to get off to a 3-0 lead in the top half of the inning. Then, in the fifth, with the score tied 5-5, the Dodgers broke through on a walk. Ron Fairly's double, a sacrifice fly by John Roseboro and Maury Wills' single, Perranoski allowed only one hit in 3 2-3 innings, boosting his record to 12-2.

Ike Qualifies Okay to Test

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said today he would favor the nuclear test ban treaty unless there is "some rather hard evidence" that America's security would be endangered.

Eisenhower, returning from a visit to the Normandy beaches of France, said he had been asked by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to give his views on the pact. He said he would do so in writing in "studied fashion."

Chuck McKinley, presently ranked as the world's top amateur, will take on Rafael Osuna, Mexico's No. 1 star, in the opening singles match.

The second match will put Dennis Ralston against Antonio Palafox, Mexico's No. 2 man.

Had the draw, held Thursday, pitted Ralston against Osuna, there was a good chance that Mexico could start off with a victory in the American Zone semifinals.

But consensus of the experts around the Los Angeles Tennis Club is that no one can beat McKinley and Ralston rates a slight edge over Palafox. If form prevails, the United States could well wind up the first day's play with a 2-0 advantage.

But there is a quiet determination among the Mexican stars that could toss the form charts out the window.

Doubles play comes Saturday, while the players change opponents in Sunday's singles match.

American League leaders walloped Boston 10-2.

PITCHING — Ron Perranoski, Dodgers, allowed only one hit in 3 2-3 innings of relief work, protecting National League leaders' 7-5 triumph over Milwaukee.

Travelers Beaten 12-7 by Atlanta

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Atlanta Crackers swamped six Arkansas pitchers Thursday night in taking their third straight International League baseball victory from the Travelers. They won 12-7.

The Arkansas moundsmen gave up 15 hits and eight bases on balls.

In other league play Syracuse downed Indianapolis 6-3, Buffalo nipped Toronto 4-3 and Rochester beat Columbus 5-3 in a 13-inning game. Two games between Richmond and Jacksonville, at Jacksonville, were cancelled because of rain.

The three games between the Crackers and Travelers proved to be a "no-contest" series for second place in the southern division.

Waterwork Bonds

CHERRY VALLEY, Ark. (AP) — Cherry Valley voters approved, 97 to 13, Tuesday a $42,000 general obligation bond issue to help pay for a waterworks system. The money provided by the bond issue will be supplemented by a revenue bond issue. The 30-year issue approved Tuesday will be retired with a 10-mill tax.

es. No nominations have been made for the doubles. Osuna and Palafox are this year's Wimbledon doubles champions.

Confidence is the byword in both camps. Pancho Gonzalez, pro and coach of the U.S. team, said: "We can beat the Mexicans 5-0. They can't beat us 5-0. And I think we will win."

Home runs: Atlanta, Davis, Clemens, Arkansas, Elia, Allen, Lipski.

Ft. Bliss Wins Over Sandia Base

FT. CHAFFEE, Ark. (AP) — Ft. Bliss, Tex. defeated Sandia Base, N.M. 2-1 Thursday night on a ninth-inning home run to take the losers bracket in the Fourth Army double elimination softball tournament.

The Texans meet the Pine Bluff Arsenal team at 7 p.m. for the championship.

BOISE, Idaho — Jefferson, Davis, Las Vegas, outpointed John Tiger Collins, Boise, heavies, 10.

The Crackers' three victories pulled them to within 2½ games of division leading Indianapolis, dropping Arkansas four games back, in third place.

John Kucks was accorded the victory — his fourth — but was relieved by Bob Humphrey after Richie Allen slammed his 25th homer of the year for Arkansas.

The game was tied 4-4 in the fourth inning, but Atlanta scored two in the sixth and three each in the eighth and nine to ice the game.

Mickey Mantle and Tony Kubek are benched with foot trouble. Roger Maris has a sore hand. You'd think the New York Yankees would rattle along like a car without two front wheels.

So Johnny Blanchard hits two home runs, including a first-inning grand slammer, and drives in six runs. Hec Lopez and Phil Linz each bang a double and two singles.

The super subs wind up with a total of eight hits and eight runs batted in in a 10-2 blast of the Red Sox at Boston Thursday.

As for Blanchard, the Sox would like to dump him in the Charles River. He doesn't hit for average.

In Fenway Park but when he does connect, the seats get an awful blasting.

"I think I've only had six hits in this park in my entire career and five of them have been home runs," said Blanchard after he wrecked the Sox. His recollection is correct. Of the five homers, four won games.

Johnny's grand slammer came in the Yanks' five-run first inning off Earl Wilson. With that fat cushion, Stan Williams won his second straight route-going job with six-hitter, including Dick Stuart's 30th homer.

The victory increased the Yankees' lead to 8½ games over the idle Chicago White Sox who found the surging Minnesota Twins just a half game behind in third place.

The Twins crushed the fourth-place Orioles 13-3. Detroit walloped the Athletics 11-1 at Kansas City and the Washington Senators eked out a 5-4 win over the Angels at Los Angeles.

In the National League, the league-leading Dodgers beat Milwaukee 7-5 to keep three games in front of the San Francisco Giants who downed Cincinnati 6-3. Houston whipped the third-place St. Louis Cardinals, 4-2, the Philadelphia Phillies tripped Chicago, 4-3, and Pittsburgh pasted the New York Mets, 8-2.

Jimmy Hall, the Twins' candidate for AL Rookie of the Year honors, slammed three hits including his 20th home run, and drove in five runs in the home rout of the Orioles. Minnesota's Lee Stange went all the way on a nine-hitter and nine strikeouts to boost his record to 6-3. Don Mincher and Bob Allison also homered for the Twins. ## Soviet Silent as U.S. Brags of Strength

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy administration is doing an astonishing job—without any complaint from Russia—of telling the world the United States is far more powerful than the Soviets.

Top men in the administration, in testimony before Senate committees considering the limited nuclear test ban treaty, have proclaimed one after another American nuclear superiority.

And not a word from Premier Khrushchev.

From Geneva The Associated Press reported that diplomatic sources said Russia last week promised this country it would not try to exploit in any way Senate debate over approval of the treaty.

This kind of Russian cooperation, to get American approval of a treaty which Russia wants as much as the Kennedy administration, is probably unprecedented, at least in recent history.

Russian agreement to the treaty is even more unusual—if it, too, thinks the United States has such superiority—since the treaty, by banning all tests except underground, makes Russian efforts to catch up more difficult.

Together the Senate hearings and debate will take perhaps a month or more. That's a long time for Khrushchev to keep quiet while the United States goes unchallenged in telling the world Russia is second-best.

This silence can hardly last forever and probably won't any longer than it takes the Senate to give its approval. Russia might make that approval much more doubtful if it began shouting counterclaims now.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, for instance, said this country has held communism in check 18 years by the "deterrent force of our massive military strength."

And he added: "We shall maintain that overwhelming strength until we are certain that freedom can be assured by other means."

And even though Rusk played badminton with Khrushchev last week, he didn't hesitate to express less than complete confidence Khrushchev wouldn't cheat on the treaty. He said he couldn't guarantee it wouldn't happen.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara was even more emphatic. He said flatly American nuclear forces "are manifestly superior." He assured his listeners this superiority would be prolonged rather than diminished by the treaty.

Even in testing underground, the only kind the treaty permits and the kind President Kennedy said this country will definitely continue, McNamara said this country "has had substantially more experience."

Therefore, he said, the agreement would "at least retard Soviet progress and prolong the duration of our technological superiority." He went even further. He expressed the opinion that the increase in American superiority over the last four years probably made the Soviet Union decide to agree to the test ban.

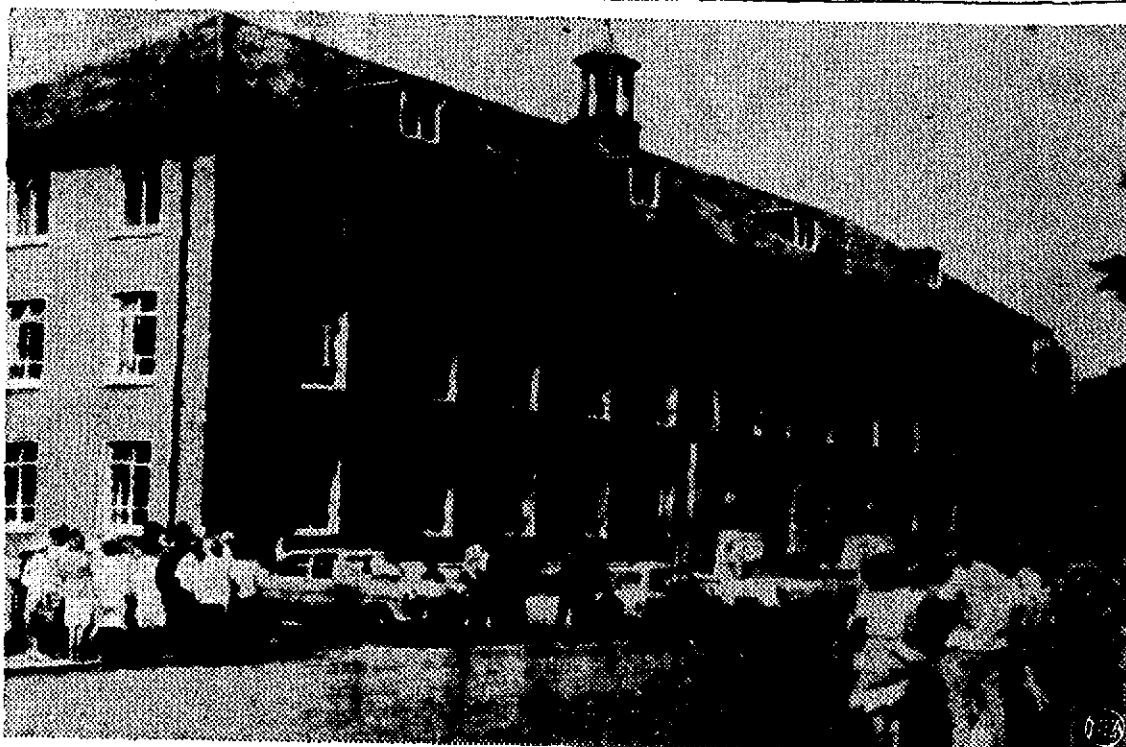

Next came Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, to say these top military men consider the United States "clearly ahead" of the Soviets "in the ability to wage strategic war" and that it is probably ahead "in the ability to wage tactical war."

Under the combined testimony of these three men any opposition left in the Senate seemed badly melted.

The three didn't say they had compared notes before testifying. But Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., thought it odd that all three expressed fear that "euphoria" in the West over the treaty might reduce its vigilance.

The dictionary defines euphoria as a "feeling of well-being or elation, especially one that is groundless." Yet, nothing could do more to give the West a feeling of elation than the testimony of Rusk, McNamara and Taylor about American superiority.

Russell said he was "consumed with curiosity" about how the word got into the testimony of all three men but he said "it's firmly established now" and "we'll have euphoria all around us."

8 Nazi Group Members Are Indicted

NEW YORK (AP)—Eight members of a neo-Nazi organization, accused of plotting riots at the scenes of civil rights picketing, have been indicted on charges of advocating criminal anarchy.

The indictments, returned Thursday by a Bronx County grand jury, also charged attempting to riot and violating the anti-weapons law.

Seven of the defendants pleaded innocent in State Supreme Court and remained free on bonds ranging from $2,500 to $7,500. No trial date was set.

The eighth, who testified before the jury after signing a waiver of immunity from possible prosecution will be arraigned later. His identity was not disclosed.

Rail Unions Listen to Secy. Wirtz

WASHINGTON (AP)—The rail unions have accepted suggestions advanced by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz for bargaining procedures in the jobs dispute.

Never spelled out in detail, the suggestions were made Aug. 2 to define the limits within which bargaining could proceed. They were not intended as settlement proposals.

Negotiations have sputtered to a stalemate and any optimism Thursday's union announcement may have raised soon dwindled when J.E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, issued a statement saying the unions "insist give-and-take of collective bargaining means they do all the taking and the railroads do all the giving."

Unless a settlement is reached or Congress approves President Kennedy's plan to turn the dispute over to the Interstate Commerce Commission, a nationwide rail strike Aug. 29 appears inevitable.

Shoe Factory at Conway Ends Strike

CONWAY, Ark. (AP)—Operations at the International Shoe Co. plant were resumed Thursday when seven women stitch operators returned to work after striking over what plant superintendent Ben Knott termed minor grievances.

Knott said the women walked out in disagreement over such things as "moving a rack here and a fan there."

The other 450 employees of the plant did not cross the picket line and the plant was idle Tuesday and Wednesday.

The women's grievances will be negotiated at the St. Louis office of the company, Knott said.

25 True Bills From Spa Jury

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—Twenty-five true bills—four of them secret—were returned by the U.S. Grand Jury for the Western District of Arkansas Thursday.

Twenty-one involved liquor law violations.

Fort Smith, El Dorado and Texarkana residents were named in the secret indictments. Names of those indicted are not released until the persons have been arrested.

The indictments came at the close of a two-day session of the Grand Jury at Hot Springs.

Russia Raps Both China and U.S.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union accused both the United States and Red China today of working against peace.

The official party organ Pravda suggested that the Chinese were trying to promote a war between the United States and the Soviet Union.

The military newspaper Krasnaya Vozdza accused ruling circles of the United States of taking a two-faced attitude toward the nuclear test ban treaty.

Low 50's as Cold Wave Hits State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Overnight low temperatures skidded into the 50s again this morning, but the high pressure area that caused the past few days of cool, dry weather was moving farther to the east and a warming trend was predicted for Saturday.

Little Rock, which has the official reading for the state, had a record low for the second day in a row. The reading this morning was 55, six degrees below the old record set in 1929.

Batesville had the lowest reading in the state, however, with a frosty 49. It was 50 at Gilbert.

The Weather Bureau said the high pressure system was moving into the Ohio Valley and that some warming would be felt today and Saturday as winds returned to a southerly direction.

A cold front moving southward from the plains states held promise of some widely scattered thundershowers over the weekend, but was expected to dampen only about 30 per cent of western Arkansas and 15 per cent of the eastern portions of the state.

High temperatures Thursday were generally in the low to mid 80s.

Other overnight low readings included: 53 at Fayetteville, Brinkley, Hope, Warren and Mountain Home, 54 at Keiser and El Dorado and 55 at Walnut Ridge, Camden, Marianna, Newport, Portland, Stuttgart, Beaver, Greers Ferry and Mena.

Highs of 84-92 were predicted for this afternoon, well below the record 107 for this date set in 1943. Lows tonight were expected to be mostly in the 60s and highs of 90-96 were forecast for Saturday.

No rain was reported during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m.

Temperatures during the next five days were expected to average two to four degrees below the normal highs of 92 and the normal lows of 70.

Showers during the five-day period were expected to produce one-half inch to two inches of rainfall.

Hong Kong Fires on Red Chinese

HONG KONG (AP)—An exchange of fire took place 10 days ago between a Hong Kong police ketch and what was believed to be an armed Chinese Communist motor junk near Mirs Bay, east of Hong Kong.

A belated Hong Kong government statement today said three police constables were wounded by gunshots fired from the unidentified vessel. The shooting occurred in British territorial waters, the statement said.

Martial Law for 2 Cities in Viet Nam

By PETER ARNETT
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—President Ngo Dinh Diem's government clamped martial law on two major Vietnamese cities today in the wake of another Buddhist suicide by fire—the third this week.

Martial law was imposed on the central Viet Nam capital of Hue, where the latest burning occurred early today, and on the coastal city of Nhatrang, where Vietnamese troops quelled a big demonstration with tear gas.

Reliable sources said U.S. military personnel had been restricted to their barracks from dusk to dawn in both cities, which are centers of U.S. military advisory groups.

All Vietnamese in Hue except civil servants and troops were ordered to stay indoors.

Tension reached a new pitch when a 71-year-old Buddhist monk, Thich Thien Dieu, burned himself to death at 4 a.m. in Hue's biggest pagoda. It was the fifth such ritual suicide in two months in the Buddhist campaign against the government of Diem, a Roman Catholic.

Several hundred government troops ringed the Tu Dam pagoda but did not try to enter the building, where Buddhists guarded the monk's body.

The burning apparently was organized by the Buddhist hierarchy. Two young Buddhists who burned themselves to death this week acted independently.

The old monk announced over a loudspeaker from his pagoda Thursday night that he would commit suicide in support of Buddhist demands for civil and religious rights they claim are denied them by Diem.

Hot Springs Pair Accused in Drug Raid

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—A raid on a Hot Springs motel room netted a large quantity of marijuana Wednesday night and two men were charged with possession of the drug.

Police Chief Joe Crain said William T. Smith Jr., 26, of Hot Springs and Jimmy Brown, 19, of Little Rock, were held on $5,000 bonds.

Brown was arrested as he came out of Smith's room, Crain said, and Smith was picked up later in a downtown bar.

The two are to be arraigned next Wednesday in Hot Springs Municipal Court unless Pros. Atty. David Whittington files charges direct in Garland Circuit Court.

Crain said police seized a small tobacco can filled with marijuana and a sack containing marijuana seed. Officers also took a marijuana cigarette from Smith, Crain said, and a number of butts were found in his room.

Smith faces similar charges in Little Rock, Crain said.

Circuit Judge P. E. Dobbs issued a warrant for search of the room.

SHEVILLE, N. C. (AP)—George Harrison of El Dorado, Ark., was elected custodian of the Children of the Confederacy Thursday. Lynda Rogers of Fitzgerald, Ga., was named president. The election came during the group's ninth general convention.

Pressure for Peace Is on "Mister K"

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev is believed to be under domestic as well as foreign pressures to reach new agreements with the United States and its allies for easing tensions and reducing the dangers of war.

This belief evidently underlies the cautious optimism indicated by Secretary of State Dean Rusk at his news conference Friday that further East-West accords, following up the nuclear test ban success, may be possible.

Rusk particularly cited the possibility of working out a system for stationing observers in key transportation centers of the great powers to guard against the danger of surprise attack.

At the same time he warned that the hopeful situation could be turned upside down "by tomorrow morning," and added: "We just have to keep working at it to see what can happen."

Rusk was in the Soviet Union a week ago and held policy talks with Khrushchev and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. He is scheduled to meet Gromyko in New York next month for further discussions on the next round of U.S.-Soviet negotiations to reduce tensions. Meanwhile, he is directing consultations with the United States' North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies on a possible nonaggression pact with Soviet bloc countries and on related issues.

Rusk said he believes the Soviet Union "has some real interest in this test ban treaty and in exploring these matters (issues of possible future agreement) further."

"I think the argument between Moscow and Peking about the role of thermonuclear war in the modern world is a serious argument," Rusk declared.

"I believe that the Soviet Union does have, as all of us have, some great unfinished tasks for its own people in which it would like to make substantially large investments."

Rusk's reference to the conflict between the Soviet Union and Red China was in line with a view widely held by top government officials that Khrushchev is seriously worried about the growing hostility in the Red Chinese leaders toward the Kremlin and feels that he should improve his relations with the West and demonstrate that his policy of peaceful coexistence can produce results.

The dispute over thermonuclear war is a fundamental issue of the conflict. Khrushchev argues that the Communists cannot afford to use major war as an instrument for spreading revolution.

The Chinese contend that great risks are necessary and that war is probably inevitable in the process.

Rusk did not spell out what economic pressures he sees operating on Khrushchev, but his general comment was in line with what well-informed officials say privately. Their view is that Khrushchev must find some way of reducing military costs and the military drain on Soviet industrial resources if he is to expand the civilian economy and increase activities in the light industry and consumer goods fields.

This evidently was what Rusk had in mind in referring to "great unfinished tasks."

Presumably Khrushchev hopes that agreements with the West would lessen the danger of war would make it possible to make the reductions in military costs which would allow him to finance activities in other fields.

Friday night, W. Averell Harriman, chief U.S. negotiator of the limited nuclear test ban treaty, said that after last October's Cuban missile crisis showdown "it became very evident that Mr. Khrushchev did not want to have anything to do with atomic war."

Khrushchev is finding it very expensive to keep up the arms race, Harriman said in a program taped for Florida radio-television stations.

The Soviet Union is trying to get all nations to sign the treaty to "keep the spotlight on Red China for failing to sign," Harriman continued. "They are trying to make the world believe that Red China is more dangerous than they are."

School Guidance Group Schedules Workshop Meet in Jonesboro Next Week

By MARY ANITA LASETAR

Did you know that the president of the Arkansas Personnel and Guidance Association is Hope High School Guidance Counselor Earl Downs? The group will have a workshop in Jonesboro next week, August 21-23. One of the consultants will be Dr. Dolph Camp, a former Hope teacher now with the U.S. Department of Education.

Began in the 1940's with Horace Hubbard as counselor, the program at Hope High had a lapse of several years with no counselor here. But since 1957 Earl Downs has spearheaded the drive for more emphasis and greater use of the Guidance Counseling service in our local schools.

Today, an active file on from 525 to 550 students is kept up to date. It is not allowed out of the high school office, but it is available for parents, students, and prospective employers to see there.

Acceptance of the program and use of it by employers has grown steadily, but in the last three years it has had an overwhelming reception by the general public.

"It is an outstanding program at a minimum of expense," Downs explained. "For $609 a student receives nine years of testing with the results, changes of interests, and progress being carefully charted."

This expense is borne by the local school system and it is felt that the plan is certainly worth the testing in the 3rd and 4th grades, and the remaining tests.

Airport Aid for 11 Cities in Arkansas

WASHINGTON (AP)—Approval of $429,830 in grants to 11 Arkansas cities for airport improvements was announced Thursday by the Federal Aviation Agency.

Grants, for the year which started last July 1, include: Almyra $15,250 to reconstruct north-south runway, install beacon and windcone; Arkadelphia $7,200 for land and clearing; Batesville $39,425, extend and reconstruct runway; Berryville $54,000 construct 3,600 foot runway, lights, etc.; Blytheville $60,000 extend runway, widen and resurface; El Dorado $91,000 reconstruct north-south runway, enlarge apron; Franklin $31,075, land, clearance, site preparation and 3,500 foot runway.

Mena $28,000, construct 3,600 foot runway; Morrilton $34,565 land, clearing, landing area, 2,400 foot runway; Texarkana 16,065, construct apron; Wynne $56,250, 2,900 foot runway, lights, beacon, land, clear zone.

Cuban Sugar Mill Bombed by a Plane

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—One unidentified plane bombed and strafed a Cuban sugar mill Thursday and another flew over a refinery at Havana this morning, the Cuban radio reported.

Antiaircraft batteries went into action today when a plane flew over the Nico Lopez refinery in Havana Bay, formerly the U.S. Esso refinery. The plant was nationalized by the Castro regime in 1960.

The broadcast said heavy anti-aircraft fire forced the plane to change its course away from Cuba. Its nationality was not reported.

Another broadcast, quoting an armed forces ministry communiqué, said a small private plane attacked the Bolivia sugar mill in Camaguey Province at 4:05 a.m. Thursday, strafing it and dropping two 50-pound bombs from an altitude between 450 and 600 feet.

Only one of the bombs exploded, the report said, and it did no damage. The plane flew northward after completing its mission. The sugar mill is located at Moron, in an area where some guerrilla activity has been reported.

Students Delayed
HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—The American students visiting Cuba in defiance of a U.S. State Department travel ban have encountered a fourth delay in their return home.

They were told Wednesday the plane that was to have flown them out today will not be ready until next Wednesday because of mechanical trouble.

are graded and charted by Downs and his staff of Junior Counselors. Only the 1st, 2nd, and 10th grades are not tested.

The tests are to thorough and exact that one glance by a person well-trained in the work can show a student's aptitude for further study and occupation. Speaking of education, Guidance Counselor Downs received his training in his chosen field at the University of Arkansas.

For 12 months out of the year parents of local students are free to make appointments with the local counselor to discuss the findings of the tests. The peak is reached in July when Downs is apt to counsel with parents from 7 a.m. until 4:30, though his hours aren't that long every day. In August he begins to prepare for the falling testing program.

Not only job opportunities but much valuable information can be had regarding higher scholastic pursuits. These range from up-to-date information on all church related vocations and preparation for them to the training and career opportunities in the F.B.I. Scholarships which are available, a guide to college majors, and information about the military are also at the Counselor's disposal.

"To help every student in Arkansas achieve his best potential is the goal of the Guidance Counseling Program," said Earl Downs. He further explained, "The heart of the program is work with the individual student."

The key to the success of the local program is that word, heart.

Man Will Guide Future Space Flight

By HOWARD BENEDICT

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP)—Man, not his machine, will be the controlling factor on future flights by U.S. astronauts, the flight director on all six Project Mercury manned missions said today.

Chris Kraft, flight operations director for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Manned Spacecraft Center, told a satellite conference the United States is moving confidently ahead with the Gemini and Apollo manned programs because Mercury proved that man can perform effectively in space.

"When we started the manned space flight program five years ago," Kraft said, "there was a great deal of doubt about man's usefulness in space. We now have come to the point which is exactly 180 degrees around the circle from that opinion. We now depend on man to back up the automatic systems rather than using the automatic systems alone."

He said in the future there will be a blending of pilot and automatic systems.

"By experience we have arrived at what we think is a proper mixture," Kraft said. "Man is the deciding element."

He cited the action of astronauts John H. Glenn Jr., Malcolm Scott Carpenter, Walter M. Schirra Jr., and Leroy Gordon Cooper Jr. in overcoming problems that cropped up during their flights. Three of them had to exercise manual control during the critical re-entry maneuver.

Mercury ended with Cooper's 22-orbit trip last May. Next up is Project Gemini, which will send two men into orbit in the same capsule. The first flight is scheduled in about 14 months.

Raley Shoppe's Buyers to Dallas

Mrs. John B. Lowe and Mrs. Paul A. Raley, buyer for Raley's Style Shoppe, will attend the annual Holiday Fashion Market to be held August 18-23 in Dallas.

During Market buyers will select holiday fashions from over 7000 lines on display, thus assuring local customers of up-to-the minute selections of fashion-right apparel.

Sponsored by the National Fashion Exhibitors of America, the American Fashion Association, and Texas Fashion Creators, the Dallas markets play a major role in the national fashion picture. Traditionally, four markets are held annually, with August market featuring clothing and accessories for party wear during the holiday season, as well as lingerie for Christmas giving. May merchandise selected will appear in retail stores in late fall or early winter.

Arbitration Accepted by Rail Unions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rail negotiations inched forward today, spurred by conditional union acceptance of a Labor Department proposal for arbitration of the two key issues in the prolonged work rules dispute.

The unions' provisional acceptance of Labor W. Willard Wirtz' proposal—to which the carriers agreed without reservation—signaled a possible major breakthrough in the deadlock that threatens to produce a nationwide rail strike Aug. 29.

But Wirtz declared, "We're by no means home," and J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the railroads, viewed the unions' conditions as amounting to rejection of the secretary's plan.

Wolfe said, however, that attorneys for the carriers would meet today with lawyers for the five operating unions to examine legal problems posed by Wirtz' proposal.

Advanced on Thursday night, Wirtz' plan calls for submitting the questions of firemen's jobs and makeup of train crews to an arbitration board of management, union and public representatives. The board would make a binding decision on these key issues. Other issues would be left to settle by the two sides.

In giving qualified approval, the unions said there first must be agreement on procedures to settle the "other than manning issues." Wirtz said Labor Department officials would meet with rail and union representatives on this matter over the weekend.

"At this moment, it is impossible to know whether a settlement can be reached privately," the secretary said Friday night. "The situation is very critical."

After learning of the unions' statement, Wolfe said, "Their response was so surrounded with reservations as to cast doubt on their sincerity." He told newsmen the unions' position "may present an insurmountable obstacle" to final settlement.

Unless the dispute is settled or legislation to deal with it is passed, the railroads will put the job-eliminating rules into effect Aug. 29, Wolfe said. The unions have said they will call an immediate strike once the rules changes are posted.

At the core of the dispute are the jobs of about 32,000 firemen on yard engines and freight trains. The railroads say they are no longer needed. The unions contend they are essential for efficient and safe operations.

The number of men—conductors and brakemen—to be assigned to train crews is the other chief item in disagreement.

President Kennedy proposed turning the dilemma over to the Interstate Commerce Commission, which would decide work-rules issues for a two-year interim while the parties continued negotiations for a permanent settlement. Except for holding hearings, Congress has been slow to act.

Moderate Leftist Is Congo Chief

BRAZZAVILLE, Congo Republic (AP)—The Congo Republic's army today announced the appointment of Alphonse Massamba-Debat, described by friends as a moderate leftist, to head a provisional government for the Congo Republic.

Massamba-Debat, 42, takes over from Fulbert Youlou, the country's only president since it gained independence from France three years ago.

Massamba-Debat was named "chief of government," or premier, not provisional president. Youlou resigned Thursday and turned the government over to the army after rioting and shouting charges of corruption and high living against him and his ministers.

Preachers Forced Out by Race Issue

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

One evening last spring at a meeting of the Board of Deacons of the Baptist Church in the community of Linden, Ala., someone asked a hypothetical question: What would happen if a Negro sought membership?

The Rev. Joe Patterson, then pastor, promptly replied that to bar a person because of color would "reduce the church, which was founded by Christ to be a universal and redemptive fellowship, to nothing more than a social club."

His viewpoint brought sharply conflicting reaction from the congregation. Rather than "tear up the church," the Rev. Mr. Patterson resigned, effective June 29.

Such cases have become increasingly frequent. Numerous pastors in the South, and a few in the North, have left their pulpits under varying degrees of pressure because of their stands against racial segregation.

The total number is unknown, since the reason for ministerial departures ordinarily is not specified when such conflicts are involved, church officials say.

However, reports have turned up more than a score of clergymen who have left their pulpits since early spring under fire for their stands on race relations.

In some instances, there have been physical attacks, harassing telephone calls, tire slashings. Usually, however, the objections are registered by chilly attitudes and thinning church attendance.

Largest Christian bodies in the South are the Methodist Church and the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Albert McClellan of Nashville, Tenn., a Southern Baptist executive, says he knows definitely of only three pastors forced out of their pulpits recently over the race question.

But he said there could be many more, and that he knew of several others who resigned voluntarily because they felt they couldn't preach forthrightly on the racial problem.

While some have remained silent in order to continue what service they could in peace, the Rev. Mr. McClellan said, still others "have spoken out in love for racial reconciliation."

In Mississippi Methodist Bishop Marvin Franklin said "a little more than usual left last year."

"But we haven't had an enormous number leave," he added. "A lot of them found better positions. I think we've had others leave partly on account of the racial situation."

Of 28 Methodist pastors in Bishop Franklin's conference who last January signed a "statement of conviction" against racial discrimination 19 have moved on to other posts.

Texarkana Grid Future Looking Up

Editors note:
This is the fourth in a series of 10 articles on the Big 10 Conference football teams—their weaknesses, strengths, and how they are likely to fare in football wars this season.

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Staff Writer

The Texarkana Razorbacks won't be big and they won't be fast and they won't be the Big 10 Conference doormat, anymore.

Robert E. (Swede) Lee, a one-year veteran at the Texarkana helm, makes the analysis.

"We're not going to beat everybody," he admits. "But we're not going to be pushovers, anymore. I expect we'll lose our share. But we hope to play football this year."

The Hogs stayed so close to the cellar for so long that they could almost get a patent on the league's bottom rung. Lee's mills of resurrection grind exceedingly slow, but fine. But, then, a slow miracle is better than none at all, and most of the league coaches believe that if he can make Texarkana a winner in three years he will have pulled off a minor miracle.

The formula for this, the second stage, of the rebuilding process is: "Three yards and a cloud of dust."

The first stage was successful. It was to get some football prospects onto the practice field. The Razorbacks went to work Wednesday with about 85 prospects.

Among them were 16 lettermen, 11 of them seniors, seven of whom Lee expects will be starters this fall.

He's proud of this year's juniors, and he's hopeful they'll boost Texarkana to first division next year.

This year's planning has brought about some shifts in personnel.

David Cooper, a 195-pound senior who spent most of his football as a fullback but was a guard part of last season, returns to fullback.

"We're going to work him," Lee said.

Quarterback is a toss-up between Freddy Green, a 6-3, 175-pounder, and Gene Lott, a 5-8, 160-pounder. Both throw well.

The Texarkana offense will be basically a quarterback-fullback offense, for which the quarterbacks and Cooper are best fitted.

"Cooper can really throw a rolling block, and we'll need that for our quarterback sprint-outs," Lee said.

He said the Razorbacks also will throw "quite a bit."

The ends probably will be Mickey Head, a junior letterman; Travis Giles, who was a sprinter in track and a defensive safety last year; and Kenneth Cay, a center last year.

Sonny Whitehead, an end last year, has been moved to center.

"He's one of our better football players," Lee said.

Duane Patterson gets the wingback job, with Phillip Gray backing him; Joe Flagg is the tailback and Phillip Crane will run behind him.

"No depth," Lee taps as the biggest problem.

The interior line is deep in lettermen.

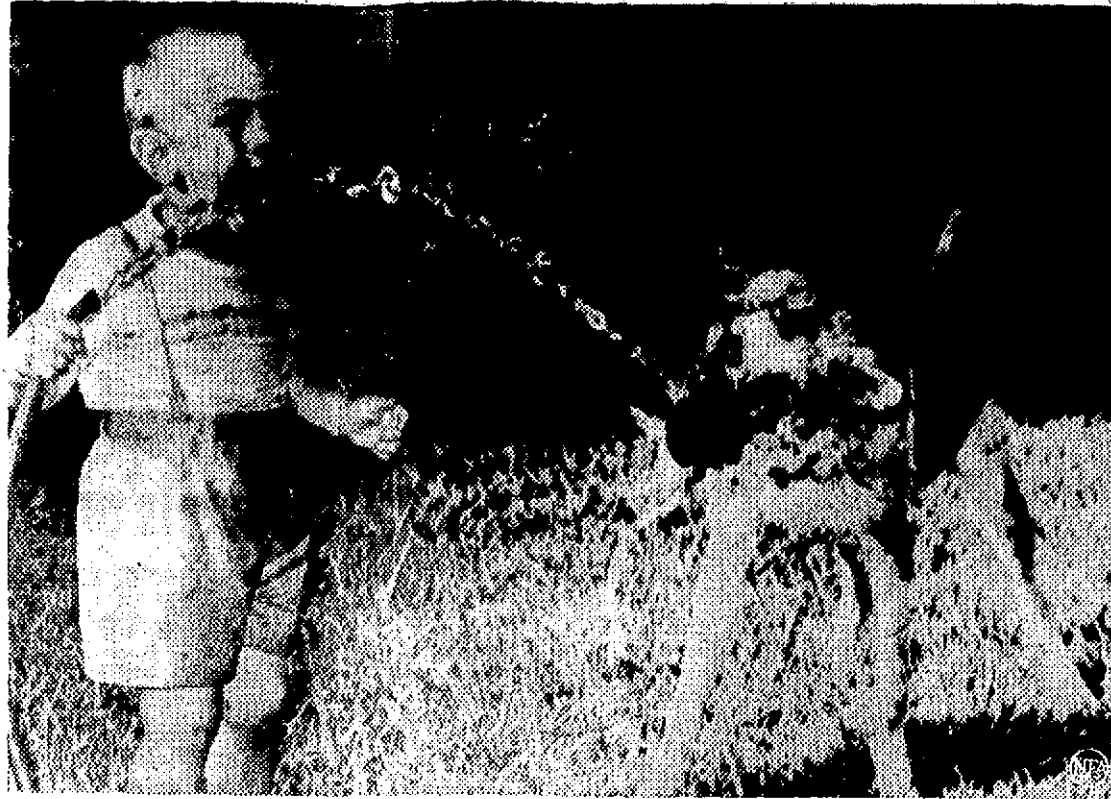

They are tackles Teddy Miller, 185; Happy Grace, 180; Darryl Martindale, 205; guards Guy Sanders, 165; Frank Buchanan, 165; and Bobby Wardlow, 163. Whitehead is a letterman, too.

The light line, Texarkana's problem most often, is being remedied.

"This year's first team line will average about 175 pounds," Lee said. "The second team line will be heavier."

Then he adds: "And slower." Tomorrow: Fort Smith.

By 1960, there were only twenty five public schools in the state.

DOES FRIENDSHIP JUSTIFY LOVING INTERFERENCE?

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: A friend has a serious problem and being unable to help, I feel lost. She and her husband have been married four years and she is pregnant with her third child. Her husband does not love her any more and spends most of his time out with the boys.

She and her children are always neat, clean and eager for his arrival from work. Their home is beautifully kept. Because of religious reasons, neither of them want to divorce. I suggested that they go to their priest or a marriage counselor. She said he refuses help from anyone.

My heart aches for her. We've known each other a long time. She was my bridesmaid, I hers. I don't feel it my place to interfere, but she is so desperate. They have separated twice yet can't afford to live separately so are back together again. —Worried Friend

Dear Worried Friend: There is a well-known prayer which I recommend to you and to all others in a difficult but helpless position: "God grant us the serenity to accept the things we cannot change, the courage to change the things we can, and the wisdom to know the difference." Acceptance of an unhappy situation which is not likely to be changed requires not only serenity, but also a hard inner core of dispassionate objectivity.

Not all problems have solutions. If they did life would be far less complicated. Your friend's marriage cannot be dissolved for religious reasons. It's not economically feasible for her and her husband to be separated. So what course of action can she take except to face these facts: How she faces them is a question which perhaps you can help her answer in the best possible way.

Love is such an intricate emotion. How have you reached the conclusion that your friend's husband no longer loves her? This is a facet of their situation which bears analyzing. They presumably loved each other when they were married only four years ago and they have produced three children. It's almost incredible that love could suddenly and inexplicably disappear from such a relationship.

If the husband is still immature—which I suspect—his ardor may have cooled temporarily as a result of his wife's repeated pregnancies. His spending "most of his time out with the boys" would indicate this. In any case, since divorce is out of the question, I think it's wrong to make a final judgment about lack of love. Here is where the great resources of your friend's religion should help. Even if the husband refuses to talk to their priest, the wife should do so. Their religion's basic precepts concerning marriage and parenthood need to be reemphasized.

Your role in this marriage should be one of noninterference. Yet there is no reason why you can't acquire serenity, courage, and wisdom yourself, and do your utmost to promote these qualities in your friend.

Her present state of desperation is not only accomplishing nothing, it is actually contributing toward further deterioration of her family. Her negative outlook of despair and futility needs to be replaced by a positive sense of responsibility which in turn may communicate itself to the father of her children.

Dear Helen: Last Christmas my husband and I received a card from my teenage son's girl friend signed "Bob (our son) and Mary." While it was nice of her to think of us, I consider her including his name in poor taste.

For our recent anniversary, we received a gift from the two of them. If they were engaged or married, I would think this okay but under the circumstances, I find it, as I said, in poor taste. What do you think? Should I try to get my view across to the girl friend and, if so, how? —Questioning

Dear Questioning: It seems to me that your son's girl friend is assuming a role that hasn't as yet been, and may never be, assigned to her. In other words, she is jumping the gun. I agree with you that her action is in poor taste. But instead of speaking to the girl, speak to your son. He is the logical one to stop her "horning in" on his gifts and cards to you.

Dear Helen: Until a few months ago I went with a swell guy who liked and respected me. I felt the same about him. My problem is that when we broke up, I hurt him very much and haven't heard or seen him since. What can I do to get him back?

Although I have dated other boys, and he probably other girls, I would like a chance to see him, say how sorry I am, and maybe try all over again. —In-a-Spot

Dear In-a-Spot: A simple apology, either verbal or written, is all that is required. Make it short and sweet. Then if "he" wants to "try all over again," the next move will come from him. Otherwise, you'd better consider the experience a closed chapter. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "The Way to a Boy's Heart."

Don't Count on Any Tax Cut as Yet

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — If you carry your heart in your wallet and it skipped a beat at the news from the House, relax. Nothing may come of it.

The House Ways and Means Committee Wednesday finally approved a cut in individual and corporate income taxes, starting in part next Jan. 1.

But already some congressional leaders are examining an embarrassing needle, just in case.

The tax-cut action was a sudden burst of energy from a committee which has been pondering the bill since President Kennedy first offered it Jan. 24.

At that time he also asked Congress for broad tax reforms. He wanted the cuts and the reforms to go together.

The committee proved more agreeable about the cut than the reforms. Yet, for most of 1963, this had been Kennedy's biggest program.

The spotlight was captured by the civil rights bill he offered later, although even he hadn't anticipated the need for it earlier in the year.

Committee approval of the tax-cut bill, however, was just a first step.

Now it goes to the rules committee before reaching the full House for a vote. This takes time. Perhaps the House will get around to voting in September.

Once through the House—if it gets through the House—the bill moves over to the Senate for the full treatment.

That means weeks of hearings in the Senate itself for a vote. But Republican Senate leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, a member of the finance committee, has doubts Congress will cut taxes this year.

"It is not unwarranted," he said, "to think this matter might go over until next year." He thought action might be blocked by a civil rights filibuster—a view also expressed by Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., finance committee chairman.

They weren't alone. A Democratic member of the same committee, Sen. Albert Gore of Tennessee, said he doubts the Senate will act on it in 1963.

If this wasn't gloomy enough for taxpayers hoping for more take-home pay, starting Jan. 1, another top Republican sprayed ice water. This was Charles Halleck of Indiana, the Republican leader in the House. He sounded gloomier than Dirksen.

While Dirksen thought the House might pass the bill, even if the Senate didn't, Halleck thought the House might not pass it in the first place if it thought the Senate wouldn't.

From a politician's standpoint, 1964 would be a much better year for a tax cut—It's an election year—particularly if Congress granted the cut just before it adjourned in 1964 to start campaigning.

It would be fresher in voters' memories.

So, if not this year, then maybe next year, although Kennedy insisted months ago that a tax cut would stimulate the economy.

"The purpose of cutting taxes," he said, "is not to create a deficit but to increase investment, employment, and the prospects for a balanced budget."

It is no wonder this Congress has been called the tardiest in years.

Former President Harry S. Truman, in the 1948 presidential campaign, called the Republican-run Congress of that year the "do nothing" Congress.

It was a lot more active than this one which happens to be run by Democrats. It's full of uncertainties.

Wednesday, for example: The Senate by a squeaky 47-44 vote approved a domestic Peace Corps for a two-year trial. Now the bill goes to the House. It's future? Uncertain.

At the same time the House Wednesday passed and sent to the Senate legislation authorizing $1,195,000,000 in federal aid for college construction over three years. Predictions on this? Unsafe.

This bill is similar to one the House passed last year. Because the House and Senate differed on it, it died. There may be differences again.

Everything will bog down for weeks if the Senate gets into a filibuster on civil rights, as it probably will.

4 Negroes Would Enter NLR Schools

NORTH LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Four Negro students applied Thursday for admission to white schools in North Little Rock next month.

The school board voted Thursday night to take the applications under consideration.

North Little Rock schools are segregated and the applications were the first received since 1957. The board had planned to begin desegregation in that year, but postponed the move indefinitely after a crowd of white persons blocked the entrance of Negro students at North Little Rock High School.

Jacquelyn Yvonne Wilson, 15, Carolyn Lynne Smith, 16, and La Joyce Robinson applied for admission to North Little Rock High School. Larry Edward Smith, 14, applied for entrance at Jefferson Davis Junior High.

Each application said the student lived nearer the white school than all-Negro Jones Junior-Senior High School.

School Board President Milton Rhodes said a special meeting would be held to consider the requests.

The board also took under consideration Thursday night a request from Little Rock Air Force Base for a statement of policy on the admission of children of air base personnel who live in North Little Rock.

The Defense Department has asked base commanders to get such statements from local school boards.

Truman, in the 1948 presidential campaign, called the Republican-run Congress of that year the "do nothing" Congress.

It was a lot more active than this one which happens to be run by Democrats. It's full of uncertainties.

Wednesday, for example: The Senate by a squeaky 47-44 vote approved a domestic Peace Corps for a two-year trial. Now the bill goes to the House. It's future? Uncertain.

Re-district Ruling Due From Court

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The U.S. Supreme Court is expected to blow away some of the haze that conforts and confuses the picture of legislative reapportionment in the 50 states.

On Nov. 12 the court will hear arguments in cases involving the districting of legislatures in Virginia, Maryland, New York and Alabama.

The court's decision—expected later in the session—may tell the other states and the other federal courts just what the Supreme Court expects them to do.

Although the Supreme Court, in a March 26, 1962, decision, said that federal courts have jurisdiction in cases where citizens complain about legislative districting, the court left a number of questions unanswered. It may answer them now.

Or, if it doesn't answer the questions in these four cases, the court likely will—if and when it takes up a case involving the Oklahoma Legislature.

Last July 17, a three-judge federal court in Oklahoma City ordered the reapportionment of both houses of the Oklahoma Legislature on the basis of population and nothing else.

Oklahoma Atty. Gen. Charles Nesbitt said he would appeal to the Supreme Court.

The Oklahoma decision is significant because it seems to answer two questions most often asked about reapportionment:

1. Is the "little federal system" legal? These are legislatures which are like Congress in that they have one house apportioned by population and the other by geographic units.

2. If a house is apportioned by population, how strictly does it have to follow population? Do other factors—geography, tradition, area—have a right to be considered?

Reports from Associated Press bureaus throughout the country show that 31 state legislatures, under the prodding of the court's 1962 decision and the drive by the cities and suburbs, have taken some steps to redistrict since the 1960 census.

But, in the eyes of the critics, these often have been no more than token steps. AP bureau reports show that federal suits demanding fair apportionment have been filed in 29 states, 16 of them in states where the legislatures have taken steps.

So far, the survey shows, there has been little change in the balance of power. Rural areas still dominate most state legislatures.

The reapportionment picture is further complicated by the fact that the governors of Illinois, Indiana, Rhode Island and Wisconsin vetoed reapportionment bills passed by the legislatures. In these cases, the conflict was largely political, with the governor belonging to one party and the legislature controlled by another.

Poultrymen Praise Sen. Fulbright

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas poultry processors have commended Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., on his stand against high tariffs on U.S. poultry by Common Market countries.

Fulbright said that if the tariff is not eased, this country should slap heavy tariffs on goods coming from Common Market nations. The Arkansas Poultry Federation sent a telegram thanking the senator for his stand. It was signed by every processor in the state.

This is five per cent below the figure for the previous week. Of the total placements in the state, 4,160,000 chicks were hatched in Arkansas and 641,000 came from other states.

There were 335,000 broiler chicks shipped out of the state during the week. The estimated total of 5,889,000 eggs set for broiler-type chicks in Arkansas during the week was three per cent below the previous week.

McClellan to Interview Informer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John McClellan, D-Ark., will interview Joseph Valachi privately before Valachi goes before McClellan's Senate Investigating Subcommittee next month to tell what he knows about gangland.

Valachi, mobster turned stool pigeon, is being held at Ft. Monmouth, N.J., an Army Signal Corps post, because authorities fear he might be assassinated by the underworld.

The underworld reportedly has offered $100,000 to the man who kills Valachi.

Federal prison officials still are in charge of guarding him and there is no spectacular concentration of guards around him, Justice Department sources said. He is not being kept with other prisoners.

Valachi is under federal narcotics and murder convictions and was taken out of the Atlanta federal prison last year and moved to Ft. Monmouth.

He will be taken to Washington several days before the subcommittee hearing so McClellan can talk with him privately.

Negro Charged in Monticello Death

MONTICELLO, Ark. (AP) — Rufus Owens, 56, a Negro of Monticello, was to be arraigned today in Drew Circuit Court in connection with the death of Mrs. Ollie Jackson, 59, also a Negro of Monticello, whose body was found Sunday on a railroad track south of Monticello.

Drew County Sheriff Jack Towler said Owens had admitted beating the woman and leaving her on the Ashley, Drew and Northern Railroad tracks.

Her body was found after it had been struck by a freight train.

Rebels Claim First Gain in Haiti

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — A Haitian exile spokesman claimed today that rebel Gen. Leon Cantave's invasion force has scored its first success in a mountain guerrilla campaign to overthrow dictator Francois Duvalier.

Paul Verna, the exile spokesman, said Cantave's army of several hundred exiles had seized the village of Mont Orgueille, in the Riviere du Nord Mountains 17 miles south of the northern coast on which the invaders claim they landed early last week.

President Duvalier's government claimed its forces had crushed the invaders.

The discovery of coal near Spadra in 1840, was the beginning of the great coal mining industry in Arkansas.

BY NELSON C. NYE
© 1963 Nelson C. Nye, Distributed by Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

THE STORY: Benson is pursuing his recently purchased herd of wild horses. Two of them, Tom Rock and Cajun Queen, are leading the stampede.

XII

A hundred feet ahead, through a haze of despair, I could see my money spilling out across the shaley rim that, scarcely 40 yards beyond, sheered dropped to the cedar bottoms. I yelled in an agony of frustration, crazily shouting at the top of my lungs as the dun, wallowing under me, capsize in a loose-jointed fall.

I don't know whether it was the shouts torn out of me or the sudden sharp crackle of gunfire racketing up from below but, even as I was flung from the saddle, I saw Tom Rock pull up and swerve.

Up again, bruised and badly shaken, I found the whole band vanishing well back from the rim through a lemon dust as Shirri Dorrus and our hired pair swarmed out of the brush.

Dorris peered at me queerly, then rode over to the rim. "Be no broken legs now. They're headed for the notch."

"But what was that shooting?" I asked.

"Looks like some of Alfredo's boys was down in the bottoms. Time that bunch gits to water they'll hev 'em in a surround. All we gotta do then is ride up an' claim 'em." He looked at me and snorted. "There's 10 of them. You figger we kin do it?"

I stared in some alarm. "You mean," I said, "they'd attempt to keep those horses?"

He looked through his week's growth of spraggy whiskers, as though I had asked who killed Cock Robin. He peeled the lips off his snags in a nasty grin. "C'mon," he said, "we'll soon find out!"

The two barflies, back of him, swapped worried scowls. "Just a minute," I called. "What about this dun?"

He peered, wheeling over. "Guess you'll hev to git up behind—"

He pulled his chin up, staring. When he saw this hadn't improved things noticeably he bade one of our hired sots gruffly to remount. "Surely," I said gathering up the dropped reins, "you don't seiously suggest these people will imagine they can seize my horses?"

Dorris, splattering tobacco juice, snorted. "You're the one with the crystal ball, sport. If you can't read it don't look at me."

"You've neighbored with these Ybarra's—"

"Ha!" he said, and I climbed into the saddle. "Near enough, leastways," he declared derisively, "to know better'n try to prognosticate what a pickle will most likely squirt when you squeeze it."

I watched the horseless barfly, muttering and mumbling, haul himself up behind his frowsy companion. It occurred to me to wonder, as we swung into Dorrus' wake, what arrangement of events could have inspired this kind of talk. Had he been feuding with the hacienda?

Considering what I knew of Dorrus, bad blood did not seem too farfetched an assumption. This was one of the things I had not thought to look into. I uncomfortably hoped their antipathy—if there was any—had not yet embraced bloodshed.

Sin's Grip

How deep in the filth are you? Does sin have you in its clutch... under its control? Have you ever stopped to determine what is sordid and what is sublime in this life? God said, "the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous." Maybe it is time, right now, to consider your plight... that you are bound by the strong hand of sin. God is always ready to cast a life-line to those who call upon Him. He will lift you out of the murky confines of sin and loose the grip which has you entangled. It's a good time to about-face, to start going to church. Why not pledge to spend each Sunday in worshipping the Lord during the rest of this year. He said to cast your burdens upon Him and He would sustain you.
